

This coffee table is sturdy and stable enough to be a bench and is handmade from three jointed slabs of red oak and walnut (live edge), and cedar legs (finished with the Shan Sugi Ban charring technique) harvested from storm-downed trees from western Albemarle County. The WTJU logo is branded underneath.

- Jim Mandell (woodworker)

